'Community Remembrance Soup & Roll Event'

This is the 4th year of this popular event here at Ae Primary. All our village residents are invited, as well as the wider community. The children raise funds for the British Legion by knitting poppies to sell and we also have donation boxes to raise funds for more local charities. The children perform WW1 related songs/poetry before serving the guests their lunch.

FREE (Donation only)

Need a Hero Day! 'Into Film - Lego Batman'

FREE

Breaking Batman down into "hero components", this event will take pupils through building their own inner superhero, drawing on their abilities, values, identity and ideas for their adventures. The session has been designed to enable pupils to become their own alter ego and build their own version of a Batcave at school.

*This session is open to pre 5's within the village and wider community.

Saturday 9th December 2017, 2pm

'Family Christmas Movie Afternoon'

This will get you in the Christmas spirit! Parents and children are warmly invited into school this afternoon to relax, unwind and enjoy a Christmas movie. There will be popcorn, juice and hot chocolate for the children and mulled wine, tea, coffee, mince pies for the adults.

How can you say no!
